

Project Summary Sheet

Project Name: Headwater Corners Acquisition

Tracking No: 4027

Location: corner of Topanga Canyon and Mulholland Dr. County: Los Angeles

Project Sponsor: Mountain Restoration Trust

Point of Contact: Debra O'Hare

Co-applicant(s): City of Calabasas

Assembly District: Senate District: N/A

Project Description (including size): Acquisition in fee of 8.5 acre parcel as part of a contiguous flood reduction/wildlife corridor along Calabasas Creek headwaters.

Flood Benefits: Overall project should substantially repair a repetitive flood problem involving too much incursion in to creek bed.

Agricultural Benefits: N/A

Agricultural Land Conserved, acres, if any: N/A

Wildlife Benefits: Will create corridor from coast to crest of Santa Monica Mountains.

Wildlife Habitat acres Conserved, if any: 8.5 acres

Total area conserved:..500 acres

Other Benefits: recreation, interpretation

Total Cost: $ 4,352,135

FPCP Cost: $ 1,584,825

Funding Partners and Share of Cost:

Locals $ 810,000

In kind $1,937,310